	Authorised by:	Iain Barral, Director

Strathclyde Vulcanising Services (SVS) are committed to the continual development and improvement to all areas of our business and the services we provide to customers and clients.

To achieve this, we operate an integrated management system (IMS) which incorporates the requirements of the following international standards;

- ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management Systems.
- ISO14001:2015 Environmental Management Systems.
- ISO45001:2018 Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems.

It is SVS policy to;

- To meet the needs and expectations of our clients, customers and other stakeholders and where practicable to strive to exceed their expectations.
- Comply with all UK safety and environmental legislation that is applicable to our operations, activities and the provision of our services.
- To utilise the risk management process to identify safety, environmental and business risks and where practicable to eliminate or mitigate and control those risks to an acceptable or tolerable level.
- To ensure all workplaces, plant, vehicles, equipment and systems are provided in a safe condition as far as reasonably practicable.
- To prevent injuries or ill health or our employees and others who may be affected by our operations or activities, to protect our environment and prevent pollution.
- To provide adequate resources to ensure our employees are trained and competent for their roles, responsibilities and their ongoing future development.
- To set objectives and targets for safety, environmental and quality management across the business.
- To prevent all types of incidents where practicable but operate an open and transparent process for all employees to report incidents or concerns.
- To regularly communicate and consult with our employees and other stakeholders.
- The IMS will be monitored, reviewed, benchmarked and audited on a periodic basis.

The policy will be reviewed at least annually to ensure that it remains relevant and suitable for our business.

This policy will be communicated to all applicable persons working for and on behalf of SVS and is available to any external organisation or member of the public upon request.
